Hearing of Habeas Corpus Proceedings Begun in the Supreme Court.

MR. BURKE SPRINGS A SURPRISE,

Bills Are in Conflict, and Vold.

institutionality of the Maupin act prohibiting foreign book-making in Virginia was begun in the Supreme Court of Ap-

The styles of the case is Lacy vs. Palmer, the latter being the Sheriff of Alexardria county, to whose custody the petitioner was consigned by the examining opening argument of Mr. Burke, of counnel for Lacy, or, really, the race-track people, consumed the remainder of yesterday's session of the court, after the opinions had been handed down, and the further hearing will consume the whole of to-day.

Brent, Francis L. Smith, and R. Walton Moore appeared as counsel for the racing people, and Attorney-General Scott resented the State. Mr. Leonard

It was shortly after the noon hour when Clerk Taylor called the case of Lacy vs. Palmer, Sheriff, and Mr. Burke arose Clerk Taylor cailed the case of Laty vs. Palmer, Sheriff, and Mr. Burke arose and, addressing the court, asked permission to amend the petition originally filed for a writ of haboas corpus. He explained that the amendment consisted only of a bare and succinct statement of facts, and the Attorney-General raising no objections thereto, the court permitted the petition to be amended.

The case was then regularly gone into, and Attorney-General Scott read the mitimus on which the prisoner, Lacy, was committed to jail, together with the charge against him-namely, that he did offer in Alexandria county a wager to be placed on a certain horce racing without the State of Virginia.

Mr. Burke then read Lacy's demurrer to the mitimus, and called attention to the clause in the petition setting forth that the wager, which was to have been transmitted to Wheeling, W. Va., was not in violation of the laws of that State. The Attorney-General suggested that the statement as to the laws of the court ruled that the case might be proceeded with, and the law of West Virginia was a matter that should be proceeded with, and the law of West Virginia bearing on the case might be looked into later.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Mr. Burke referred to the recently-enacted law giving exclusive jurisdiction in misdemeanor cases to justices of the peace, and said that the commitment of the justice was illegal, in that he did not have the right to send a case of that description on to a county court, and the County Court had no right to try it. Mr. Burke offered, however, to waive this point and have the court pass upon the merits of the case.

The point came like a bombshell upon all present, and the court at once adjourned to the conference room to consider it. After ten minutes the judges excended the beach again, and Fresident Keith stated that the question of jurisdiction was a very grave one, and one that should be considered carefully. The court was, however, content to take the case as it is, and consider it, exclusive that should be considered carefully. The court was, however, content to take the case as it is, and consider it, exclusive of the point raised. This was agreeable to both sides, and Mr. Burke began his argument. He first contended that the body of the Maupin act was entirely barren of any allusion to pool-selling, and fixed no penalty therefor, and yet the title was simply to prevent pool-selling, etc. and was therefore insufficient and misleading, and consequently unconstitutional. Mr. Burke dwelt at considerable length on this point, and subsetutional. Mr. Burke dweit at consuctable length on this point, and subsequently discussed the effect of the bill, setting forth that it was harsh legislation which so restricted a citizen as to prohibit him from sending his money out of the State for any purpose whatever. It was clearly in the province whatever. It was clearly in the province whatever. It was to enact laws pro-hibiting gambling in this State, but there was no right vested in it to prohibit a citizen from sending his money be-yond the borders of the Commonwealth for gambling purposes, if he so desired. THE TWO ACTS COMPARED.

THE TWO ACTS COMPARED.

Comparing the two Maupin acts—the one prohibiting local and the other foreign pool-selling—Mr. Burke showed that the penalties prescribed by the two acts were dissimilar, though punishing similar offences, and he contended indirectly that by the peculiar phraseology of the two acts the one repealed the other. Both of these acts, he said, were approved by the Governor on the same day, and he submitted opinions deciding that when two acts, the one repugnant to the other, are approved on the same day, it is impossible for the courts to decide which should have precedence, and both shall fall. He therefore contended in general terms that one Maupin act multified the other, and that, as a result, none of the anti-race-track gambling laws enacted by the last Legislaresult, none of the anti-race-track gar bling laws enacted by the last Legisl ture were valid.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE. Mr. Burke, in concluding his argument, said he wanted an interpretation from the Supreme Court, not only of the constitutionality of the Maupin law, but of the interstate commerce law, as enacted by the Congress of the United States. He dwelt at some length on the rights of free and unrestricted commerce between the States, and of the evils of police interference therewith.

Mr. Burke concluded at a few minutes before 2 o'clock, and the court adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock.

NOT VIOLATING THE ORDINANCE.

Mr. Sitterding's Work on the Theatre Could Not Be Interrupted. Call and See How Many Groceries You

In view of the action taken on Wednesday afternoon by the Committee on Streets regarding the obstructions at the corner of Seventh and Broad streets, where Mr. Fritz Sitterding is tearing down the old Richmond Theatre, City-Engineer Cutehaw yesterday morning called on Chief-of-Police Howard and requested him to carry out the desires of the committee and have the nuisance at that point abated. Major Howard forthwith ordered that all work upon the building be stopped, and that Broad street be cleared until the matter could be settled in the Police Court, and reported Mr. Sitterding for violating the ordinances of the city regarding obstructions upon her thoroughfares.

A short while afterwards a conference was held between the City Attorney, Police-Justice Crutchfield. City-Engineer Cutshaw, and Mr. Sitterding. City-Attorney Meredith stated that as far as he could learn Mr. Sitterding was not violating the city ordinances at all, while he might not be keeping strictly within the terms of his agreement with the Street Committee and the City Engineer. Having received this assurance from the Attorney, the contractor started his men back to work at 1 o'clock, and they were promptly arrested and taken to the Second Station. In the mean time Captain Angle had heard of the result of the conference between the gentlemen above named, and between the gentlemen above named, and when the workmen were brought in he immediately endeavored to communicate with the Chief of Police, who had not at this time been advised of the City Attor-

this time been advised of the City Attorney's opinion. Captain Angle could not reach Major Howard, so he took it upon himself to dismits the case against the employees and reported his action to Chief Howard later for the latter's approval, which was primptly forthcoming.

The case against Mr. Sitterding will be heard in the Police Court to-morrow morning, having been postponed until then because the contractor will not be in the city to-day. What the Committee on Streets is especially anxious for is security from danger to all pedestrians passing the old Theatre while it is being torn down.
